

Scorpion Script

The Scorpion Script is a powerful, compact laser that displays custom patterns and text! It can be adjusted for large or small venues and looks great projecting on the wall or cutting through haze. Amaze the audience by rotating the built-in patterns and text or use the keyboard to create custom patterns and text, and then amaze the audience even more by rotating them! The Scorpion Script has its own wireless remote that recalls built-in, and custom, patterns and text. The Scorpion Script is small and light, fits in the CHS-25 VIP Gear Bag, and is a great way to bring your event to the next level.
